

Parenting Yearly Energy Report

Hello Tammy:

Cardology is the study of the Destiny Card System which is the ancient science and secrets held by playing cards. This report uses the Destiny Card System to explore relational energies between one parent and their child.

Part 1 - Personality Traits

Let's begin by establishing some context, that is, by looking at each person's Birth and Planetary Ruling Cards. If you are familiar with astrology, a Birth Card is like one's zodiac sign as it is determined by one's date of birth. Each person's Birth Card assigns specific personality traits (strengths and weaknesses), past life knowledge, destined relationships, and karma. Another important card to consider is the Planetary Ruling Card, also determined by one's date of birth and the zodiac sign ruling that date. A person's Planetary Ruling Card provides additional personality traits one has at their disposal to externally express. Think of these traits as a mask or persona a person can wear, though, not the person's true nature (Birth Card).

Tammy's Birth Card is a 7♦ - The Card of Spiritual Values:

The 7♦ is one of those unique cards called a 'semi-fixed' card. As part of a special family of seven uniquely different cards, these people fall into a different category and have a special mark on their lives. They are very stubborn, but they are also very creative, and some are destined to become millionaires in this life by accessing the high side of this spiritual money card. By suit, they are always connected with money. As a spiritual number, they must maintain a non-attached attitude about money or there will be continuous problems in this area. We find they are either worrying about it all the time or not worrying and having as much as they like. Regardless, many of their life lessons will come through this avenue. The other avenue is through their close relationships. Family, lovers, and friends are all very important to the 7♦ person. They have close ties, for better or worse, with their family and share in their trials. They have a high, spiritual love nature that often entails making personal sacrifices for their family and other close relationships. There is little they won't do on behalf of their family or friends.

This is one of the most spiritual cards in the deck and as such, their success comes from approaching life in ways other than traditional or materialistic. The most successful among them are the ones that live in the faith that all their needs will always be provided. They are usually restless, making frequent changes in either occupation or location. Their love life usually entails sacrifice and disappointment until they learn to let others go and be as they are. In their spiritual studies they find inner satisfaction and validation for their own intuition. Once on the spiritual path, everything in their life is put into perspective and they can excel in any chosen field.

Tammy's Planetary Ruling Card is 9♣ - Universal Knowledge Card:

This ruling card adds a spiritual overtone to one's personality, along with a desire to be of benefit to others, or the world at large. Many with this card dedicate themselves to some noble purpose. This is one of the sexiest cards in the deck and you may find that romance is a very important area of your life. Mentally, you have probably suffered many setbacks and in some cases, this could affect your outlook on life. You are kind-hearted and others may come to you for solace and a shoulder to cry on. Just don't let them take unfair advantage of your kindness. You are very protective of children and want to see them receive the highest card. You may find you are drawn to spiritual studies, since they best explain some of your feelings about life and the occasional mental 'awakenings' that you experience.

Benjamin's Birth Card is a J♣ - The Mentally Creative Card:

Creative, dishonest, or a mixture of both? As we can imagine, those who are the most creative can also be the most dishonest and vice versa. Here is a card of mental and financial creativity and these people are no lazy bones. Their brilliant minds are far ahead of the common person and society. They are the people of the Aquarian Age, being neither entirely male nor female. They are progressive and on the cutting edge of the evolution of our society and world. As a member of the royal family, they dislike pettiness and tend to be somewhat impatient with the failings of others. They need respect and a position that allows their brilliant minds free reign to create and explore. They are never at a loss for ideas, some of which will bring huge financial rewards.

On the negative side, the J ♣ can be irresponsible and in some cases, dishonest. They can see things from so many levels that nothing is really 'wrong' - it is just another way of looking at things. And they can make up a story so fast that they can explain practically anything. They don't get away with much though. Saturn's hand always reminds them of the boundaries that keep them balanced and fair. The trouble comes when they start believing their own stories, departing from reality a little too far and creating a lot of hardship before getting back on course. They are essentially good and giving people. Even though they are argumentative at times, they are loving and friendly to all they meet.

Benjamin's Planetary Ruling Card is 4♥ - Marriage & Family Card:

This card represents a foundation of love and all the good things associated with home and family. These things are very important to Benjamin and he'll probably go out of his way to make sure he has a circle of close friends that he can count on, and that his home is comfortable and enjoyable. As a matter of fact, he may have special skills that relate to food, beauty, or home life in other areas. He is probably a good cook. In any case, he will find ways to create security amongst his inner circle of friends and family. He is a protector and helper to those he loves. Others feel nurtured in his presence. Family life can bring much joy.

Part 2- Composite Relational Energy

Now, let's consider the relational energy between Tammy and Benjamin. When two people interact in a relationship, each of their Birth Card's energies combine and form a new energy. The Destiny Card System reveals this new energy through the Composite Card. Composite Cards have higher and lower expressions. Because of free will, each person chooses the expression they manifest.

Composite Relational Energy is a 5♥ - Change of Heart Card:

This means that the dynamics of the relationship are likely impacted by a change of heart. A change of heart might mean a divorce or separation that influences this relationship. Alternatively, the energy between parent and child may be emotionally unstable from time to time. A Five energy represents change and a need for freedom. The parent should provide this child with travel, adventure, and a variety of social experiences otherwise this child may become moody or emotionally restless as a lower expression. A higher expression of this same energy means this child will encourage this parent to engage in spontaneous moments of fun, whether it be playful banter or acting goofy together.

Part 3 - Yearly Relational Energy

To be forewarned is to be forearmed when it comes to parenting. In astrology, a person's Birth Chart is a snapshot of the positions of structures in the Universe and their interactive energies at the exact time of a person's birth. Each year of a person's life, the yearly patterns of movement or transits of these structures impact each person differently depending upon their Birth Chart. In the Destiny Card System, these yearly transits of energies are accounted for in what is called Yearly Spreads for each Birth Card. It may help to think of these Yearly Spreads as energies that present each person with shorter-term life lessons. Each person responds to these energies by freely making choices, thus creating their own destiny.

With that thought in mind, let's consider yearly energies between Tammy and Benjamin from Tammy's perspective (timeline begins at Tammy's birth date of April 14, 2022 and ends on April 14, 2023).

Relational Energies in Tammy's Yearly Spreads:

In Tammy's 7♦ Yearly Spread (see below), Benjamin's Birth Card (J♣) shows up as an underlying card in Mars. The J♣ is underneath a K♦ and connected to a Q♦. This means Benjamin is somehow connected to a need to be financially resourceful (Q♦) and to master finances (K♦). Because Mars rules anger, passion, and action, a higher expression of this energy would be action. For such results, Tammy and Benjamin should coordinate and align their financial goals otherwise anger may be expressed. Tammy should also have conversations around money when Benjamin is calm.

In Tammy's 9♣ Yearly Spread (see below), Benjamin's J♣ shows up as her Cosmic Reward Card and is connected to an 8♠ Pluto Card. This means Tammy will be challenged to help Benjamin to overcome health challenges or maintain perseverance. The J♣ also shows up as an underlying card beneath the Cosmic Lesson Card, K♦. This energy reinforces the lessons to be learned around money matters that were mentioned before.

Finally, let's consider yearly energies between Tammy and Benjamin from Benjamin's perspective (timeline begins at Benjamin's birth date of January 29, 2022 and ends on January 29, 2023).

Relational Energies in Benjamin's Yearly Spreads:

In Benjamin's J♣ Yearly Spread (see below), Tammy's Birth Card (7♦) shows up directly in Uranus with a 4♣. This means from Benjamin's point of view, the relationship seems erratic from time to time. Alternatively, because Uranus rules friendships and Benjamin is 17, it may mean he is desiring more of a friend type of relationship with Tammy. That is to say, more freedom and less mothering. The 4♣ indicates mental peace will result when there's a breakthrough in this area. Also, Tammy's Planetary Ruling Card (9♣) shows up as Benjamin's Moon Card. This is a wonderful connection in that it means Tammy will take on a supportive role in Benjamin's life; always being available and helpful in supporting his goals.
